LOUIS VUITTON TAMBOUR HIGH-END

WHERE ICONIC DESIGN MEETS RARE GEM ARTISTRY

A NEW ERA OF TAMBOUR

Louis Vuitton elevates its iconic Tambour once again with two ultra-limited, gem-set masterpieces — each a bold expression of craftsmanship, rarity, and modern luxury.

YELLOW GOLD TAMBOUR: ONYX & SAFFRON BRILLIANCE

A striking fusion of deep black onyx and radiant saffron sapphires, this 40mm 18K yellow-gold Tambour brings dramatic elegance to the wrist. Featuring LV's first-ever onyx dial in the Tambour line, each piece is meticulously shaped from Brazilian onyx and set with baguette-cut saffron sapphires that echo Louis Vuitton's historic "Vuittonite" hue. Limited to 30 pieces globally, it's a glowing celebration of savoir-faire, refinement, and contemporary glamour.

PLATINUM TAMBOUR: A SPECTRUM OF PRECIOUS COLOUR

In a debut for the collection, LV introduces a platinum Tambour—an extraordinary canvas for a rainbow gradient of sapphires and rubies sourced from Sri Lanka and Mozambique. The fully gem-set bezel and colour-matched indices radiate with rare vibrance, contrasting beautifully against a silvered opaline dial. Limited to 50 pieces, each watch features a hidden saffron sapphire on the caseback — a subtle signature of exclusivity.

A MOVEMENT OF MASTERY

Both pieces house the Calibre LFT023, Louis Vuitton's proprietary three-hand movement, chronometer-certified and finished with exquisite details including a 22K rose gold micro-rotor. Precision, artistry, and heritage unite within every component.

THE HOUSE OF BNG UNVEILS THE MIMOSA

BRUNCH-INSPIRED CELEBRATION IN A CAN

South Africa's premier black-owned luxury beverage brand, The House of BNG, introduces The Mimosa, a ready-to-drink sparkling wine that brings brunch elegance to every celebration. Following the success of its Méthode Cap Classique and 0% Nectar collection, this latest creation marks another milestone in the brand's journey.

Presented in a sleek 250ml can, The Mimosa embodies the elegance and attention to detail The House of BNG has become known for since its 2019 debut. Conceived as part of founder Bonang Matheba's vision of "a variant for every occasion–mimosas in the morning, Brut in the afternoon, and Nectars in the evening," the offering brings vibrancy and convenience to South African lifestyles.

Created alongside renowned Cape Wine Master Jeff Grier, The Mimosa pairs premium Stellenbosch grapes with bright, zesty orange for crisp, sun-kissed flavour. With 4.5% ABV, it's designed for effortless sipping at rooftop brunches, poolside gatherings, and spontaneous celebrations.

Perfectly suited to pastries, smoked salmon, or citrus-based desserts, this sparkling creation elevates every breakfast, brunch, or festive picnic with a playful touch of luxury.

Since its founding, The House of BNG has championed African excellence in every element–from grape selection to packaging and design. The Mimosa continues this mission, delivering accessible luxury proudly made on African soil.

HOW TO HOST AN ELEGANT SUMMER GIN GARDEN PARTY

Summers are the ultimate backdrop for outdoor entertaining. Long sunlit days, gentle breezes, and the subtle scent of rosemary and jasmine set the stage for a memorable summer soirée.

This season, embrace the art of hosting with a gin garden party—a celebration that blends botanicals, elegance, and the warmth of summer living.

THIS SEASON, EMBRACE THE ART OF HOSTING WITH A GIN GARDEN PARTY

Summers are the ultimate backdrop for outdoor entertaining. Long sunlit days, gentle breezes, and the subtle scent of rosemary and jasmine set the stage for a memorable summer soirée.

A CELEBRATION THAT BLENDS BOTANICALS, ELEGANCE, AND THE WARMTH OF SUMMER LIVING.

1 CHOOSE THE PERFECT GARDEN SETTING

Transform your outdoor space into an elegant entertaining area. Set up shaded seating areas using umbrellas or natural tree cover. String fairy lights for evening ambiance and position your gin station where it's easily accessible but away from direct sunlight.

2 EMBRACE PREMIUM LOCAL GIN AS YOUR HERO

Musgrave Pink Gin's rose-infused botanicals create Instagram-worthy cocktails that complement garden settings beautifully. The natural blush hue photographs perfectly against greenery whilst celebrating South African craftsmanship.

3 CREATE SIGNATURE GARDEN-FRESH COCKTAILS

Batch-prepare refreshing serves using Musgrave Original Gin with elderflower, fresh cucumber and tonic. Add mint from your herb garden and serve in elegant glassware that won't shatter if dropped on paving.

4 MASTER BOTANICAL GARNISHES FROM YOUR GARDEN

Use fresh herbs like rosemary, thyme and mint as natural stirrers. Float edible flowers in ice cubes for stunning visual appeal. Seasonal fruits like watermelon and citrus add refreshing bursts of flavour.

5 PLAN GARDEN PARTY FOOD PAIRINGS

Whether it’s Christmas you’re celebrating or a just for fun, gin is an ideal pairing as the botanical complexity can cut through rich scrumptious trifle while complementing light summer fare like prawn and avocado salad. Serve canapés that won't wilt in the heat and can be eaten easily whilst standing.

6 PERFECT THE RELAXED GARDEN PARTY VIBE

Let the natural beauty of your garden be the star. When hosting feels effortless, guests embrace the quintessentially South African summer entertaining spirit that makes our garden parties unforgettable

"A GARDEN PARTY IS NOT JUST ABOUT THE DRINKS —IT'S AN EXPERIENCE, A CELEBRATION OF NATURE, STYLE, AND EFFORTLESS SOPHISTICATION."

YOUR FESTIVE SEASON WINE GUIDE

Summer, sun, and a glass in hand… That's the vibe of a South African festive season. But if you think wine is just about opening a bottle and hoping for the best, think again. With a little know-how, you can elevate your wine game from 'meh' to memorable.

Bianca Leonard, Marketing Manager at lifestyle technology specialist Solenco, says there's so much more to wine than just the taste: "It's an experience. And the right prep, the right food pairing, and the right setup, can turn any gathering into a celebration."

For those looking for inspiration while holidaying in Western Cape, the wine farm options are endless. Start off by visiting Spier in Stellenbosch, which is known the world over for its commitment to sustainability, community upliftment and, of course, award-winning wine.

Try the Spier Signature Sauvignon Blanc, a crispy, zesty white with notes of gooseberry, lime and passion fruit, making it the perfect partner for a citrus-cured salmon salad, or goat's cheese with avocado and a squeeze of lemon.

THE ULTIMATE LIST OF CAPE WINELANDS

“The little things - temperature, glassware, presentation - make a big difference when you’re celebrating at home. It’s about making every sip count. But yes, pace yourself, because responsible sipping is non-negotiable.”

Then, head to Groot Constantia. Established in 1685, it’s South Africa’s oldest working wine farm. It became famous for Vin de Constance, a sweet dessert wine that became internationally renowned in the 18th and 19th centuries, but has many other awards to its name. Klein Constantia (close by) and Creation (in Elgin) secured top 10 positions in this year’s World’s 50 Best Vineyards and are also well worth a visit.

The Franschhoek Wine Tram is one of the Cape Winelands’ most iconic experiences. This hop-on, hop-off system that winds through the valley’s vineyards is an easy way to explore estates without driving. Each line stops at a curated selection of farms, allowing you to taste, tour, dine, or simply linger on a lawn before moving on. You can visit renowned wineries like Haute Cabrière, La Motte, Rickety Bridge, and Grande Provence. Babylonstoren, as famous for its gardens as its wines, is a must-visit.

Also on the route, the acclaimed Orangerie restaurant at Le Lude has an extraordinary high tea service featuring fancy sandwiches (think smoked trout with caper cream cheese; and roast beef with goat cream cheese), frittatas, profitéroles, macaroons, and more. Paired with a glass of Le Lude Brut or Brut Rosé Cap Classique? Chef’s kiss.

If your festive travel plans are more garden-lounge than Cape Winelands, a little information goes a long way. Leonard advises starting with your senses: appreciate a wine’s colour, swirl the glass and inhale deeply to find its distinctive ‘notes’, take a small, slow sip to start with. Tools help, too: tulip-shaped glasses bring out the aromas, flutes keep bubbles lively, stemless glasses are more stable, and the Solenco Wine Cooler with Decanter chills and aerates your wine perfectly.

With the right wines, thoughtful food pairings, and a few clever tools, a backyard gathering can feel just like a vineyard affair. And remember: always let the wine’s story guide your conversation. It just tastes better that way

PATRICK MAVROS

HARARE LONDON MAURITIUS NAIROBI NAMIBIA VICTORIA FALLS CAPE TOWN

UNVEILS ANIMALS OF THE NORTH

FROM AFRICA TO THE WORLD

A GLOBAL JOURNEY ROOTED IN AFRICAN CRAFTSMANSHIP

In a magnificent fusion of heritage and global inspiration, Patrick Mavros introduces Animals of the North — a new collection of sterling-silver miniature sculptures and elegant place card holders that honours the enchanting wildlife of northern landscapes. Though born in Africa and deeply tied to its artistic legacy, the Mavros family continues to expand its creative footprint across the world. This latest collection beautifully reflects that evolution.

Designed with the festive season in mind, the pieces bring a hint of wintry wonder to luxurious Christmas tables everywhere — a reminder that nature's magic transcends borders.

HONOURING NATURE'S NORTHERN STORY

We have always drawn inspiration from nature," says sculptor Patrick Mavros Jnr. "For this collection, I wanted to honour the animals that roam the forests, rivers, and mountains of the north. From the noble stag to the playful red squirrel, each design captures the spirit of the wild in silver — a way of keeping these creatures close, no matter where you are in the world.

Each sculpture speaks to quiet elegance and spirited charm — expressive, detailed, and unmistakably Mavros.

A FAMILY PHILOSOPHY OF CURIOSITY AND BELONGING

For the Mavros family, Animals of the North is more than an artistic endeavour; it is a narrative of global curiosity and connection.

“Our family is equally fascinated by the environments of the north as those of the south,” notes Alexander Mavros. “We didn’t grow up surrounded by these landscapes in our day-to-day lives, but we spent much time in these northern habitats — growing deep love and respect for the animals that call them home. There’s a quiet resonance here that has always inspired us.

That sense of belonging — both to Africa and to the shared natural world — lies at the heart of this collection.

CRAFTED FOR GLOBAL CITIZENS

With boutiques in London, Mauritius, Nairobi, Victoria Falls, Cape Town, and beyond, the Mavros legacy has become a symbol of universal elegance. Their global clientele inspired a collection that speaks to all who understand that home is both a place and a feeling.

“Though our roots are firmly in Africa, we are a family business with clients from every corner of the globe,” Alexander adds. “We wanted to create something that honours the idea that we are all global citizens. Where you reside today may not be where your roots are from, but the natural world is something we all share.

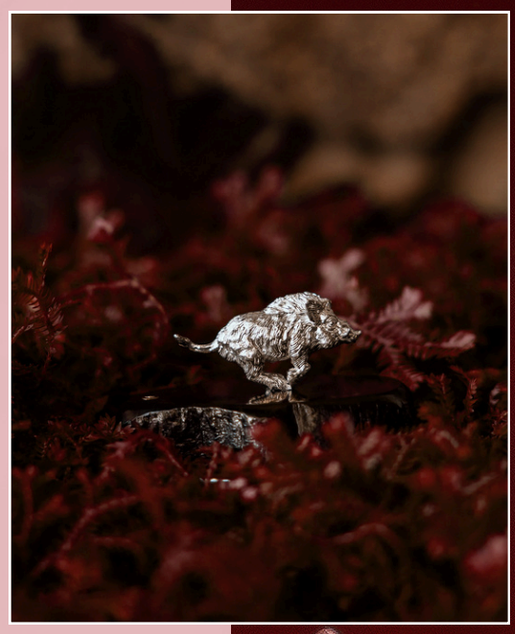

THE ART OF SILVER, THE MAJESTY OF THE WILD

Each piece in the Animals of the North collection is handcrafted in sterling silver and mounted on rich dark wood bases or shaped into refined place card holders. Whether it's a grizzly bear, a wolf, a pheasant or a fox, each sculpture captures storytelling, folklore, and the quiet grandeur of northern wildlife — brought to life through meticulous craftsmanship that has defined Patrick Mavros for generations.

These creations are both collectable and functional, adding artistry to festive tables while celebrating the enduring connection between humanity and the natural world.

A FESTIVE INVITATION TO CELEBRATE TOGETHERNESS

This season, Animals of the North invites families everywhere to celebrate connection, belonging, and the wonder of nature's diversity.

A touch of northern enchantment — born from African artistry — now finds its place on tables across the world.
